

Reduce International Freight Costs with a Transportation Management Solution

Transportation Management Challenges

"Nearly one out of four respondents claims their company spends more than 15% of their overall revenues on freight transportation shipping efforts."

Source: Logistics Management, Current Trends and the Potential for Automation in International Transportation Management.

In a recent Aberdeen Group survey, cost concerns were cited as the top transportation pressure and point of optimization.

Best-in-class companies are 1.2x more likely to track total freight cost including surcharges and fuel charges and dispute invoice costs.

Actions Likely to Take as a Means to Better Control International Shipping Costs cited increasing awareness of the cost and service impact of transportation

Solution: Transportation Management

Those that are utilizing a transportation management solution have seen the following benefits:

- 62% have lowered transportation spend by optimizing carrier selection
- 62% have reduced risk/quote errors
- 42% have lowered transportation spend by auditing freight invoices
- 23% have improved staff productivity

Sources:

Logistics Management, Current Trends and the Potential for Automation in International Transportation Management

Aberdeen Group, Close the Loop on Multi-National Transportation: Procure-to-Pay

Learn strategies to better manage international freight spend.

Download our white paper, Best Practices to Reduce International Freight Costs.

DOWNLOAD NOW